

The Urinary System

The human body needs water to survive. The urinary system makes sure the body does not have too much or too little fluid at any given time. Use the terms in the word box to label the diagram.

vein kidney muscle bladder ureter urethra artery

